Do You Want to be One of Us?

You need only this…

- strong desire to serve God through your brothers and sisters;
- love for the mission of the Daughters of St Paul;
- a good, balanced, sociable and generous character;
- capacity to live in the community;
- good health;
- have completed secondary school education with a grade that would allow you to enter a state university in your respective nation;
- an age between 18 and 26 years.

Study is an important aspect for us Daughters of St Paul. It prepares us for our beautiful but demanding mission. For each Daughter of St Paul, study is an indispensable, charismatic and vocational identity. Life involves study right from its very beginning.

Come and See

If you desire to know more about our life and mission visit http://www.paulinesafrica.org or write to the vocation directress in your country or one nearest to your country.

Our Formation programme consists of:

- Pre-Postulancy
- Postulancy
- Noviciate
- Juniorate, which is a preparation for the final profession.

We help the young women in their vocational discernment by correspondence, giving them retreats and Come and See programmes. These are opportunities to help them discover and become more aware of their vocation.

"You who possess knowledge, who have intelligence and will power, a tremendous capacity to love, a spirit of self-sacrifice, a burning desire for holiness, and a consuming thirst for souls, come with confidence to the Daughters of St Paul you can spend yourself completely in the Pauline apostolate while your horizons grow ever longer, broader and more beautiful."

(Blessed Fr James Alberione)

The Daughters of St Paul

WOULD YOU LIKE TO KNOW ABOUT
OUR LIFE AND
OUR MISSION?

Come and See!

We are religious women called and consecrated as Apostles, sent by the Church to proclaim the Gospel with the means of social communication: books, magazines, audiovisuals, radio, television and internet but first of all by the witness of our life and the faithful response to our vocation.

We were founded in Italy in 1915 by Blessed James Alberione and Venerable Sr Tecla Merlo.

Our Pauline Mission

Our Mission is to spread the Gospel using the means of social communication and all the means that the modern technology of communication invents. Our boundaries are the boundaries of the world. At the moment we are present in 55 different countries.

In Africa we are present in thirteen countries, namely: Angola, D.R. Congo, Ivory Coast, Kenya, Madagascar, Mozambique, Nigeria, Ghana, South Africa, Tanzania, Uganda, Zambia, Zimbabwe, South-Sudan and Malawi.

We go everywhere from one country to another, making Christ known and loved as St Paul did. We run book and media centres, organise book and audiovisual exhibitions in parishes and schools, and also participate in national, and international book fairs.

"No boundaries exist for a Pauline. We belong to a prophetic, open, universal and missionary congregation. Apostles are needed, apostles whose hearts are filled with the love for God, yearning to do good to all people by bringing them the Word of truth and salvation"

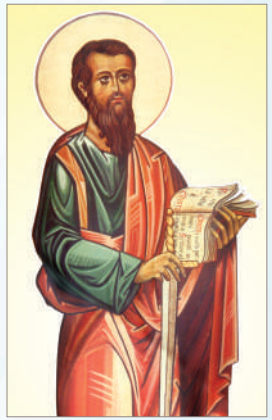

(Ven. Thecla Merlo)

Our Pauline Spirituality

Our prayer life is centred on the Word of God and on the Eucharist. In prayer, we learn from Jesus who is our Master, Way, Truth and life. In him we receive support and strength to live generously our vocation and Mission, always open to the needs of people. Every day we encounter Jesus in the meditation of the scriptures, Mass and the hour of adoration. We have three main devotions:

- Jesus Master our Way, Truth and Life
- Mary whom we honour as Queen of the Apostles
- St Paul the Apostle who is our patron and protector

Our Community Life

We live in international communities where sisters from different ethnic backgrounds, cultures, nationalities and races share the same vocation and mission.

We help each other to grow in faith and love as we share our gifts and talents for the good of the community. Thus in community we gain strength, support and encouragement for our mission.
